

GX2

Meeting & Conference

The design

balancing art and construction

GX2 has been designed to bring a wealth of choice. It's stylish lines add function and strength whilst generous curves provide comfort and support.

Versatility kept simple...

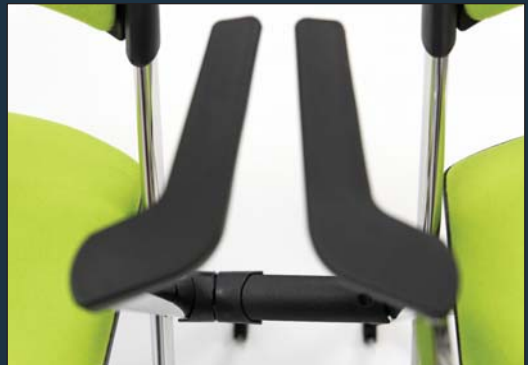

GX2's selection of accessories and finishes allows you to create the style you want.

Easy storage

When not in use, GX2 can be stacked vertically or nested together. This provides the perfect solution for adaptive workspaces.

Let's get together

GX2 can be quickly and simply linked together across the ranges regardless of arms & writing tablet.

Best foot forward

GX2 has been designed with form following function and detail. Even simple buffer feet are crafted to aid stacking.

Uncompromising

enabling you to control your environment

Moulded Back

Providing a durable, wipe-down surface for extreme use.

Tip-up or Fixed Seat

Upholstered for prolonged comfort, GX2 seating is available with fixed or tip-up seat options that provide flexibility for storage when not in use.

Stacking foot

Simple buffer feet to aid stacking.

GX2 incorporates a number of standard and optional features that ensure you can specify the right functionality to service your workspace.

Upholstered Back Pad

Offering additional comfort and the ability to colour coordinate.

Writing tablet

Provided as an option, the writing tablet features an anti-panic mechanism that ensures users can easily use the chair without encumbrance. The smooth, fold-away surface is ideal for tasks in space-limited surroundings.

Tubular Steel Frame

Simple, clean lines offering a robust structure. Available with and without arms, in a selection of coloured finishes or chrome. All models - without arms, with arms or arm with writing tablet stack vertically.

Link Kit

GX2 comes with integral link facility. Optional extended link available when linking with arms.

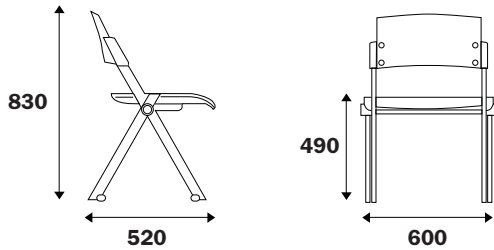

Storage basket

This no-nonsense addition fits discreetly beneath the seat and can be used to store personal belongings safely whilst keeping hands and floor space free of clutter.
